HOW WE SUPPORT YOU

Ambitious for your business? So are we. We know that our place is by your side, helping you bring your business plans within reach, to drive your business forward.

Providing access to opportunity

Whether you are starting or growing a business, we recognise you need flexibility about when, and where, you do your banking so we offer a range of banking channels to suit you (online, telephone, mobile apps and in-branch).

We recognise there will be times when you will need to explore and discuss your requirements with us. Our Regional Business Managers have a wealth of knowledge and are passionate about finding the right products and services to suit your needs.

You can take advantage of our competitive financial package, too.

Access to one of the biggest support networks across the island of Ireland

You have a lot of things to figure out at this stage and there are many business people who have been where you are who can help. Support and information from people who understand – your peers and real industry experts – can help keep you firmly on the path to success.

Supported by Ulster Bank, smallbusinesscan.com allows you to share experiences and network with people who understand your situation – people who can provide practical support rooted in real business experience. You can download the smallbusinesscan.com Start-Up Centre App as well, so you have the support you need when you are on the go. It's all free. There is something useful at smallbusinesscan.com for every business owner.

We can help you, whatever stage you are at

Whether your business is at the idea stage, or already underway, but needing the right support to grow, we can help.

We've already helped more than 100,000 small business owners, get access to opportunities. And we've seen those people drive their businesses to the next stages.

Supporting women in business

Every year, more and more women take the step of starting their own business. You can't beat the energy, commitment and natural support a growing, confident and vibrant female business community provides. This is what Business Women Can strives to provide. The community provides a 'system' of support for women-led businesses through a collaboration of online and local support through our group of Business Women Can ambassadors. For more information email businesswomencan@ulsterbank.com
